

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY'S CHRISTINE E. LYNN COLLEGE OF NURSING

An International Leader in Caring Science

- Holistic Caring-focused mission, vision and philosophy guide the College.
- Home of the Anne Boykin Institute for the Advancement of Caring in Nursing with a board membership of 13 internationally-recognized scholars in caring science.
- 20 faculty have published prominent books and journal articles focused on caring science, several are scholars in Unitary Science.
- 7 faculty have published middle range theories related to caring.
- 50 students are currently enrolled in a PhD program with a focus on Caring Science.
- Faculty research advances caring science in four areas: healthy aging, holistic health, health equity and transforming practice environments.
- Only College in the U.S. with all 4 degree programs - BSN, MSN, DNP and PhD - endorsed by the American Holistic Nurses Credentialing Center (AHNCC).
- 5 faculty are certified in Advanced Holistic Nursing, and 5 are certified or becoming certified as integrative health/wellness coaches from the AHNCC.
- 10 faculty are certified as HeartMath® trainers.
- 2 nurse-managed centers serve as vibrant demonstrations of healthcare guided by the caring mission, vision and values.
- 35 years of experience offering a curriculum centered on the substantive study of caring through nursing situations.
- Houses the only Archives of Caring Science in the world, preserving the work of prominent caring scholars.
- College of Nursing building, designed to nurture well-being, features spaces for self-reflection, quiet contemplation, yoga and other modalities.

